Upcoming Events

- 1.) President Obama hosted a discussion to explore every possible avenue for job creation, and the White House is also asking for input from across the country to identify opportunities and obstacles on the ground just like the Jobs and Economic Growth Forum hosted by the President at the White House. These events are opportunities to gather ideas for continuing to grow the economy and putting Americans back to work. To help support this needed initiative, the CWWBC will host a Community Jobs Forum in collaboration with each workshop listed above in January, February and March.
- 2.) SBA will be presenting a workshop regarding Entrepreneurship. (Date to be determined)
